The rainy season appears to have ome to stay and almost daily the refreshing showers come to sheer us and make green the landscape with growing vegetation.

A Phoenix man yesterday says the Gazette sanvasses the justice and police courts to get out au injunction courb the crowing tende rooster that each morning flops its wings and rejoices at the prospect of electing Bryan, No redress sould be secured and the feathered disturber the property of one of our fairest young ladies, still holds the fort and will continue to do so until the winsome owner of the naughty bird can secure other quarters for the fowl. The man is evidently not in favor of freedom of speech even for the bird that rebuked Peter when he thrice denied his savior.

The dogs of San Francisco have be came so vicious that notice has been given to their owners that unless these brutes are muzzled or tied up the aloresaid owners will have to procure their mail at the general delivery at the postoffice.
